

America Prays 250 - Ministry SaaS activation

AMERICA PRAYS 250

Year-Long National Prayer Initiative

Official Technology Partner: White House + U.S. Department of Education

Campaign Duration: January 2026 - December 2026

Goal: 1 Million Americans in Weekly Prayer Groups

"This is not just a campaign. This is the moment PRAY.COM becomes THE national prayer platform."

FRAMEWORK PURPOSE

Every PRAY.COM event under the America Prays 250 initiative must answer 6 critical questions before execution begins. This framework ensures:

- ✓ Thematic consistency across all touchpoints
- ✓ Elimination of stakeholder confusion
- ✓ Professional-grade execution worthy of White House partnership
- ✓ Clear accountability and measurable outcomes

This framework connects all dots across all marketing elements. Disconnected execution will kill this once-in-a-generation opportunity.

PILLAR 1: MISSION CLARITY

What is the singular objective of this initiative?

PRIMARY BUSINESS GOALS:

- ✓ BUILD COMMUNITY: Trust & referral generation across 70+ ministry partners (1.2B combined reach)
- ✓ GET DEALS: New customer acquisition (target: 100+ mega church customers)

SUCCESS METRICS:

Quantitative Targets:

- 100+ new mega church customers signed by Q4 2026
- 5M+ new PRAY.COM users acquired during 2026
- 70+ ministry partners actively promoting (1.2B combined reach activated)
- Top-of-mind brand awareness: PRAY.COM recognized as #1 faith-tech platform by EOY 2026

Timeline for Measurement:

- Monthly partner activation tracking throughout 2026
- Quarterly customer acquisition reports
- Post-event conversion tracking (30/60/90 days after major events)

NON-NEGOTIABLES:

- ✓ White House partnership integrity maintained (no perception of Christian Nationalism or heavy-handed government messaging)
- ✓ Authentic grassroots movement positioning (citizen-led response to presidential invitation)
- ✓ Legal compliance with America 250 branding requirements
- ✓ Broad accessibility across faith backgrounds while maintaining Christian foundation
- ✓ Every major event/touchpoint converts spectators to users and users to customers

STAKEHOLDER ALIGNMENT CHECKPOINT: Matt Potter (White House relations), Jason Rosoff (Marketing Strategy), Rick Killingsworth (Client Success), COO approve mission

PILLAR 2: THEMATIC FOUNDATION

What is the overarching theme/story we're telling?

This theme must permeate EVERY touchpoint: invitations, signage, presentations, gifts, attire, venue selection, food choices, transitions.

THEME STATEMENT:

"A grassroots spiritual awakening uniting Americans through prayer in response to our nation's 250th anniversary — authentic faith meeting patriotic gratitude in a year-long conversation with God about America's future."

VISUAL IDENTITY:

Primary Colors:

- Deep Navy Blue (#1E3A5F) - Authority, trust, patriotism
- Warm Gold/Amber (#D4A574) - Hope, divine light, warmth
- Clean White (#FFFFFF) - Purity, unity, accessibility

Secondary Colors:

- Crimson Red (#C8102E) - Sacrifice, courage (use sparingly for accent)
- Sage Green (#8B9B7E) - Growth, renewal

Key Imagery & Metaphors:

- Sunrise/dawn imagery (new beginning, 250 years meeting the future)
- Open hands in prayer (invitation, not declaration)
- American landscapes (diverse geography = diverse people)
- Historical touchstones (Lincoln Memorial, National Mall) without heavy patriotic tropes
- Candles/light (individual prayers creating collective illumination)

Font/Typography Style:

- Primary: Modern sans-serif (accessible, forward-looking) - Proxima Nova, Montserrat, or similar
- Accent: Classic serif for gravitas moments (Crimson Text for quotes, declarations)
- AVOID: Overly patriotic/military fonts, script fonts that feel too religious

TONAL IDENTITY:

How should participants FEEL? (3 adjectives)

1. INVITED (not commanded)
2. HOPEFUL (not anxious or fearful)
3. PART OF SOMETHING HISTORIC (not small or insignificant)

What should they SAY about this afterward?

"I didn't know prayer could bring Americans together like this"

"This felt bigger than politics — it was about our shared future"

"PRAY.COM made it easy to be part of something meaningful"

MESSAGING FRAMEWORK:

DO SAY:

- ✓ "Join the conversation."

- ✓ "Americans responding to the President's invitation."
- ✓ "A year of prayer for our nation's future."
- ✓ "Grassroots movement of faith and hope."

DON'T SAY:

- ✗ "Government-sponsored prayer initiative"
- ✗ "Christian America returning to God."
- ✗ "Taking back our nation."
- ✗ Any language suggesting exclusion or culture war positioning

STAKEHOLDER ALIGNMENT CHECKPOINT: Sean McCoy (Design), Max Bard (Content/Social), Matt Potter (White House compliance), Jason Rosoff approve

PILLAR 3: AUDIENCE ARCHITECTURE

Who are we serving and what do they need?

PRIMARY AUDIENCE SEGMENTS:

SEGMENT 1: MEGA CHURCH LEADERS & MINISTRY EXECUTIVES

Title/Role: Senior Pastors, Executive Pastors, Ministry Presidents, Worship Leaders

Demographics: Ages 40-65, 70% male, leading churches 2,000+ attendance

Psychographics:

- Values: Kingdom impact, cultural influence, legacy, innovation in ministry
- Pressures: Declining engagement, competing for attention, demonstrating ROI on tech investments
- Aspirations: Be associated with historic moments, multiply ministry reach, early adopter status

What keeps them up at night? "Is my church staying relevant? Am I leading people to genuine transformation or just entertaining them?"

SEGMENT 2: EXISTING PRAY.COM USERS

Title/Role: Individual believers seeking spiritual growth

Demographics: Ages 25-55, 60% female, digitally active

What keeps them up at night? "Am I growing spiritually or just consuming content? Does my faith actually matter?"

SEGMENT 3: PATRIOTIC AMERICANS (NON-EVANGELICAL)

Title/Role: Civic-minded citizens, veterans, educators, community leaders

Demographics: Ages 35-70, 50/50 gender split, diverse faith backgrounds

What keeps them up at night? "Can we find common ground anymore? What will my grandchildren inherit?"

SEGMENT 4: GOVERNMENT/INSTITUTIONAL DECISION-MAKERS

Title/Role: HR Directors, Chaplains, Benefits Administrators, Agency Heads

What keeps them up at night? "How do I support employee spiritual needs without creating legal issues?"

PILLAR 4: EXPERIENCE DESIGN

How do we bring the theme to life across every touchpoint?

Every touchpoint—from pre-event communications to post-event follow-up—must reinforce the sunrise/hope theme and "Join the Conversation" messaging. This section maps the complete participant journey across 2026.

RED FLAGS - STOP AND FIX IMMEDIATELY

🚩 Theme is not clear in 1 sentence

🚩 Stakeholders disagree on primary objective

🚩 Design assets don't match theme

🚩 Messaging feels too government-heavy or Christian Nationalist

🚩 No clear owner for critical tasks

🚩 Major event has no run-of-show 2 weeks out

🚩 No post-event follow-up plan in place pre-event

🚩 Attendee feedback suggests event felt "too political" or "not inclusive"
