📌 #1 All-in-one solution

Problem:

Pastors often find themselves needing to register for multiple, disparate tools to effectively manage their digital ministries.

Solution:

PrayStudio is an all-inclusive platform tailored to empower digital ministries with the vital tools necessary to amplify their outreach and boost revenue, all seamlessly integrated within the Pray ecosystem.

Pray provides the following tools:

- Content Management System (CMS): This feature allows pastors to effortlessly upload their audio and video content, enabling easy syndication to Pray, Spotify, and Apple Podcasts.
- Customer Data Platform (CDP): This tool offers pastors valuable insights into their audience, helping them tailor their messages for greater impact.
- Customer Relationship Management (CRM): A robust suite of messaging tools that empowers pastors to email, direct message, and post announcements, fostering meaningful relationships with their audience.
- Studio AI: This innovative feature automatically translates sermons into multiple languages and generates social media clips from long-form content, helping to create viral posts. Additionally, it utilizes AI to produce summaries, blog articles, and discussion guides based on the sermons.

Explanation:

PRAY is the all-in-one solution designed to support pastors in every aspect of digital ministry. With PRAY.COM, you can easily upload and share sermons, engage your congregation through messaging and announcements, and gain insights into your community's needs. Our platform's built-in AI even translates messages and creates ready-to-share content to help you reach more people across languages and platforms. Everything you need to grow, inspire, and lead your ministry is right here in one place, so you can spend less time managing tools and focusing more on what matters most—sharing God’s love and building faith in your community.

#2 Expand Your Reach

Problem

The audience for traditional broadcast radio is rapidly declining. This medium has been significantly impacted, with listeners dedicating 40% less time to radio than in the past. Similarly, traditional broadcast television is also experiencing a downward trend.

Both traditional TV and radio are struggling to keep pace in the evolving landscape of new media. Factors contributing to this decline include an aging audience base, limited outlets, rising costs, lack of interactivity, and insufficient insights.

Solution

PrayStudio provides pastors and digital ministries with an efficient solution for effortlessly uploading and distributing audio and video content across various platforms, including Pray, Apple, and Spotify. Expand your reach to millions by sharing your content on PrayTV and PrayRadio, and enhance your visibility through premium placement opportunities during onboarding and within the app, ensuring that a vast audience sees your message.

Explanation:

PRAY helps pastors expand their reach by making it easy to share sermons, devotionals, and messages with people worldwide. Pastors can upload audio or video content with just a few clicks and distribute it across major platforms like PRAY Radio, PrayTV, Apple, and Spotify. This means your message isn't limited to the walls of your church—instead, it can inspire, teach, and encourage millions searching for faith and hope every day.

You'll also benefit from premium placement in the PRAY app, helping your content stand out where listeners seek guidance. Detailed analytics show how your messages are received, empowering you to connect with your community and grow your impact.

Whether new to digital ministry or building an online congregation, PRAY gives you the tools to expand your ministry and share God's Word with a global audience. Lives are waiting to be touched by the hope you share. Start reaching more hearts with PRAY.COM.

#4 Get New Donors

Problem:

Churches and ministries have experienced a decline in donations in recent years. This downturn has forced pastors to scale back on mission work, eliminate programs, or reduce their online presence by cutting back on digital advertising expenditures.

Solution:

PrayStudio has introduced an innovative solution called “Subscription Plus,” designed to assist pastors in attracting new donors through the Pray Platform. Unlike other donor platforms that primarily facilitate donations from existing congregants, Subscription Plus stands out as a unique offering. It is specifically tailored to help ministries and churches expand their donor base on Pray.

Sign up to PrayStudio, link your bank account, and start receiving donations from the Pray audience.

Explanation:

PRAY.COM empowers pastors to reach new donors and expand their ministry’s impact. By joining the Pray community, pastors can connect with millions of faith-filled believers ready to support their church’s mission. Simply sign up, link your bank account, and start receiving donations from individuals who share your vision. With Pray.com, growing your ministry becomes easier, allowing you to restore programs, support mission work, and strengthen your church’s presence both locally and online.
